Keshawn Clark Honored by Alexandria Chamber of Commerce for 40 Under 40

Washington, D.C.— Keshawn R. Clark, Vice President, Business Development Officer, has been recognized by the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce as a 40 Under 40 honoree.

The 40 Under 40 Program was established in 2016 by the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce to recognize top men and women, age 40 and under, engaged in a variety of fields including business, technology, nonprofit management, civic life, public service, education and the arts, who are shaping Alexandria for the future.

Proud to be born and raised in Alexandria, Ms. Clark has been a banker in the community for 19 years. Now serving as a business development officer for the Northern Virginia market at National Capital Bank of Washington, she has spent the past 10 years with community banks in the City of Alexandria. She is a graduate of Northern Virginia Community College, and an active member of several community organizations including Project Discovery at T.C. Williams High School, The Bryce Project and the Arlington Chamber of Commerce. She is a former Director of the Northern Virginia Black Chamber of Commerce, and previously served as an Ambassador for the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, a Team Lead for BNI in Alexandria and a Financial Educator for the Alexandria Chapter of NAACP.

“As a local banker in Alexandria, I have had the opportunity to meet and work with so many wonderful organizations and businesses,” Clark said. “I am committed to giving back and helping to make a difference in my community and I am honored to receive this recognition.”

The National Capital Bank of Washington was founded in 1889 and is Washington’s Oldest Bank. NCB is headquartered on Capitol Hill with offices in the Friendship Heights community in Northwest D.C., and most recently the Courthouse community in Arlington, Virginia.
