The National Capital Bank of Washington Expands its Residential Mortgage Lending Team

Washington, D.C.—The National Capital Bank of Washington (NCB) announced today William G. (Bill) DuBose, II has joined the Bank as Vice President, Mortgage Loan Officer.

DuBose joins NCB's outstanding team of local lenders, bringing with him thirty years of mortgage banking experience in areas including retail loan origination, wholesale lending, correspondent lending, and GSE product development. He will be responsible for developing mortgage relationships throughout the thriving Washington, D.C. metro area. He has a proven track record of working with real estate professionals, financial advisors, attorneys and CPAs.

"Bill's experience in the Washington, D.C. market will help us meet the home-buying needs of those in and around our branch network on Capitol Hill, Friendship Heights and our newest office in the Courthouse neighborhood of Arlington, Virginia," said Richard B. (Randy) Anderson, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer. "We pride ourselves on delivering personal service in all areas of our banking business and with Bill's addition to the mortgage lending team, we now have more experts available to offer custom-designed home financing solutions."

DuBose is a true Washingtonian, born and raised in the District of Columbia. He currently resides in Bethesda, Maryland with his wife and son. To reach Bill DuBose call 202-546-8000 ext. 6429 or email at BDuBose@ncbwash.com
